

THE MONTHLY MIX
BY MEGAN GRIFFIN
photos by Matt Cornelius

School Spirit Style

Can you believe we are already beginning a new school year? High school and college games will kick off soon, and having the perfect look to support your favorite team is a must. There are so many great ways to incorporate your team colors into an outfit. Here are a few outfit ideas available from local small businesses that are perfect for women of all ages!

Clear cross-body bag with sequined strap $60 available via Apricot Lane

Meredith Gross is wearing a smocked maxi dress with ruffled sleeves. This is such an easy look to dress up or down for a football game!

Maxi dress $139 via Lindsay Kate Designs

Julie Williams is wearing a graphic tee styled with a pair of skinny jeans. Pair with wedges or sneakers for a versatile look!

Tees starting at $25 via Bones & Arrows Boutique

Katie Osburn is wearing a sequined football tee paired with an adorable pair of flowy gold shorts. The look is completed with a knot headband and statement sneakers for a casual yet cool outfit!

Tee $90, Shorts $36 available via Lindsay Kate Designs
Sneakers $140 available via Apricot Lane Boutique

Meredith
Morriss Elementary teacher

Julie
North Heights Community School teacher

Katie
Margaret Fischer Davis Elementary teacher

Let's Go earrings $15 available via Apricot Lane Boutique

Red hoop earrings $10 available via Bones & Arrows Boutique

Tiger earrings $22 available via Lindsay Kate Designs